Mass Meeting Called to Raise Funds
—N. G. U. Boys Going to Encampment—Wedding Bells.

Ogden, Aug. 23.—Several hundred Eagles and their friends held forth at Glenwood yesterday afternoon and evening. There was plenty of amusement for all who wanted it.

At 1:30 the local members of the order marched to the Union depot and met the Salt Lake delegation. The parade, headed by Nichol's band, marched up Twenty-fifth street to Washington avenue where they boarded the streetcars and were carried to Glenwood. In the saucer track the following amateur sports were pulled off: Fifty yard dash for boys under 14 years of age; 50 yard dash for girls under 18 years of age; bicycle race for boys under 18 years of age; rat man race; 50 yard egg race for ladies; 100 yard dash for Eagles only; nail driving contest for married ladies.

Prof. Gillespie attempted to make a balloon ascension but after releasing the big gas bag it was discovered that the gas had leaked through the holes so rapidly that it would not carry the weight attached to the parachute. The man and the parachute were released and the balloon soared slowly into the air, remaining only a few minutes when it gradually settled to the ground and rolled around until empty.

The ball game between the Eagles and Elks resulted in a score of 10 to 13 in favor of the former.

Mr. Anderson saw the burglars some time and tried to stop them, but as he had no gun they got away. The two on the outside were arrested near the country infirmary by Deputy Sheriff Judd and will be charged with burglary, as it is believed it can be proved they were also in the house. PAYSON.

COAL SITUATION AT PAYSON.

Fuel Shortage Threatens Serious Suffering if Not Averted.

Payson, Utah, Aug. 21.—To the Editor:—The public owe to you a debt of gratitude for the timely warning and interest manifested in the coal distress from the beginning. Your advice to lay up coal for the approaching winter is good. Last fall a citizen of Payson stored 20 cars of coal and by his foresight much suffering was averted. That coal is consumed and there is no provision for the existing demands for household use. Many are entirely without coal and must have sufficient coal for only a week or two. You can therefore, see at once, the impossibility of taking your advice to lay up a winter supply. Should the present stress continue, those who are fortunate enough to have orchards, shade trees, and fences, may, to some extent supply themselves with wood, such as it is.

I am no pessimist, but the desolation of cities and towns in respect to orchards, etc., is inevitable, if coal cannot be had.

Think of people, in a civilized government, such as ours, being unable to bake a loaf of bread, or serve a meal for want of fuel, but this condition is inevitable unless something, unforeseen at present, occurs. A coal famine is a moment like a famine for bread. Civilized man finds fuel a constant necessity to existence, and will not let coal scarcity tend largely to depopulate the state? Will wealth flow to a state where uncertainty exists? Is not home and public building already checked from this cause?

Diminish the household supply of coal, and however prosperous manufactures may be, there is sorrow and constant foreboding of want, and warmth even though the land be full of wheat. The distance for wood is too great here to bring it within a reasonable price, and farmers, who must be with the care of crops, and thus be unable to more than supply their own necessities for the winter.

SPRING CITY.

BOUNTIFUL HARVESTS.

Low Price of Dairy Products—Addition to Meetinghouse.

Special Correspondence.

Spring City, Sanpete Co., Aug. 23.—Harvesting is now under way. The wheat crop is better than it has been for years. Taken all together this has been a prosperous season for the farmers. Some of them are wondering, though, why there should be so much difference in the price of dairy products here and in Salt Lake. This month the Elgin Creamery and Dairy company paid the producers here 20 cents per pound for butter fat. The low prices paid, in connection with the low test (?) given, since the trust secured control of our creameries, is stimulating the sale of separators. Farmers find it more profitable to handle their own product independent of the creameries.

MEETINGHOUSE ADDITION.

Plans have been received for the construction of the vestry to the new meetinghouse. This addition will be built of the same kind of material as the main building, white oolite stone. When completed the addition will provide ample accommodations for Sunday school and improvement association classes, as well as quorum meetings.

The public schools will open Sept. 3. Several teachers have been employed for the coming year work.

CEDAR CITY.

DAMAGE BY STORM.

Cloud Burst Follows Electrical Crash And Floods City and Country.

Special Correspondence.

Cedar City, Iron Co., Aug. 22.—Another terrific thunderstorm and cloudburst occurred here yesterday afternoon, flooding the country and doing great damage. The downpour of water, which followed the electrical crash continued for an hour and a half. Water to the depth of two feet or more poured into the town from the hills southeast. The main and residence streets were flooded and many basements filled. A portion of the flood went through the south field, damaging the cut grain as well as the standing crops. Some of the grain crops were entirely ruined. The waterworks reservoir was badly damaged and the city water supply will be limited until the water clears again. This storm was far worse in its intensity than the one which occurred two weeks ago. The hay crop on some farms is practically ruined.

TWO BOYS DROWNED.

Little Sons of William Wall Lost While in Swimming.

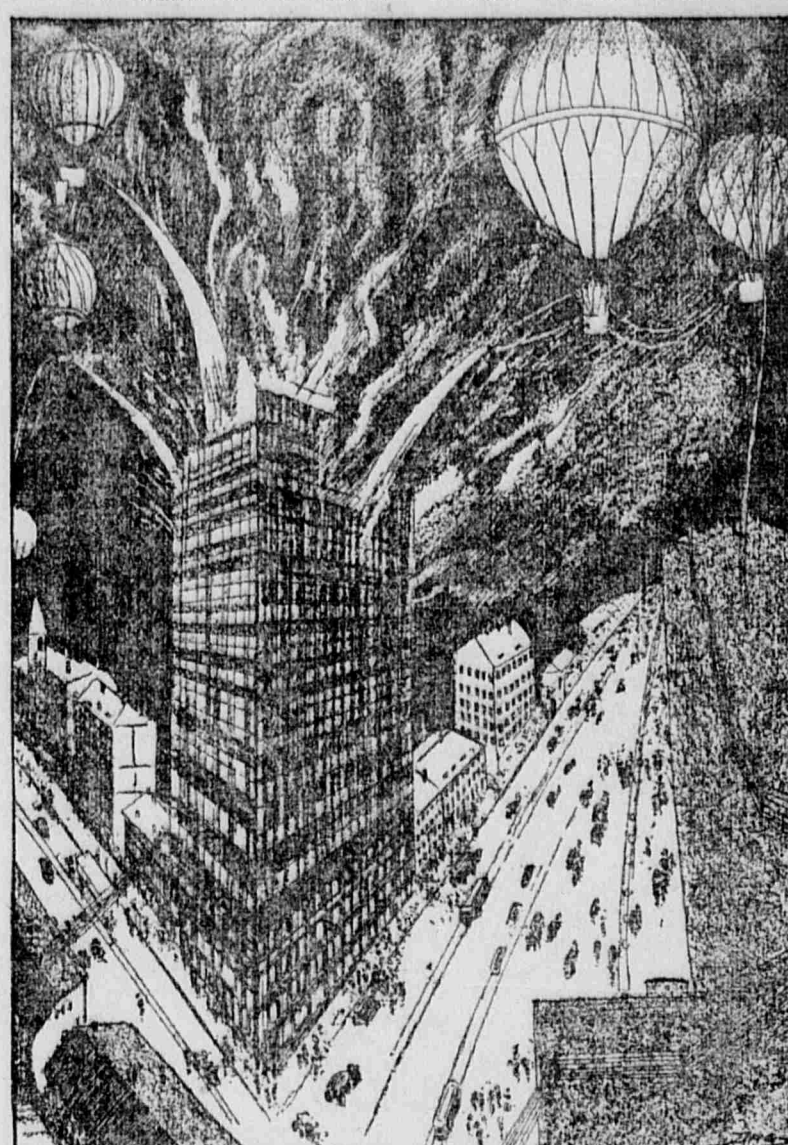

Special Correspondence.

Aurora, Sevier Co., Aug. 21.—Lynn and Webster Wall, aged 9 and 7 respectively, sons of William Wall of this place, yesterday afternoon went on horseback down to the Sevier river, never to return again. A short time after their departure from home one of their horses returned and their little sister became somewhat concerned about the boys. She went down to the river and found their clothes, but no trace of the boys. She returned with the report that they were drowned. The father became greatly alarmed and the people of Aurora became greatly alarmed and excited. Searching parties from both here and Salina were soon out.

and shortly after nightfall the body of the elder boy was found about a mile from where the clothes were found. The search for the other little boy was abandoned for the night. The next morning as much water as possible was turned out of the river into reservoirs and the search continued until after noon, when John Olsen of Salina found the body about two miles from where the first one was found. Mr. Wall, the father, is a widower, his wife having passed away about three years ago. He is heart broken over his loss. The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to him.

A GERMAN NOTION OF A NEW YORK FIRE.

The amusing picture given herewith appeared originally in a Munich newspaper. Although the text which accompanied the picture failed to say so, the sketch is purely fanciful. It professes to show the condition of affairs in a great American city when a fire breaks out in the top of a skyscraper. The balloon scheme of water towers is a very novel suggestion.
